BREED THEATRE

Neil Shipman, William Duncan and George Holt in "The Knight of the Mill, Special Vaudeville Blue Ribbon Feature for Monday and Tuesday. On Monday and Tuesday the Broad will present Neil Shipman, William Duncan and George Holt in Cleveland and Moffett's master drama of a super-criminal. Through the week there is a special Vaudeville Blue Ribbon feature in six parts. Never was a part more suited to the stage than that of Alice Kittredge, the part portrayed in this production. While the part of Alice Kittredge is extremely well played by Miss Shipman and Miss Duncan, the latter's comment from all critics, this role is even better adapted to Miss Shipman's type and personality than that of photographs remarkably well, this popular player makes a charming picture in a number of scenes and the feature takes as a whole will surely add further laurels to her name. William Duncan is seen as the master detective and George Holt as one of the best in which he has ever been cast, while George Holt is seen as the master criminal and finds in this part one of the best opportunities of his career for his particular capabilities. The Pathe Weekly and a very funny comedy entitled Jumps and Jumps, starring the popular duo of Jumps and Jumps, will appear to complete the bill for Monday and Tuesday. Today's bill at the Broad consists of Earle Williams in Arsenic Lupin, Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle in The Butcher Boy, and the Pathe Weekly.

DAVIS THEATRE

Four Shows Today—Three Big Keith Acts and Dorothy Fish in the Five-part Triangle Feature, Her Official Features. There will be four complete shows at this theatre today and the bill of Keith vaudeville and Dorothy Fish plays is one of the best this season. The feature attraction is The Excelsior Models, which appears in poses representative of classic statuary, and this exhibition is one of the finest of the season. Ten subjects are shown, including Bacchante, The Greek Slave, Home from the Vineyard, A Day in the Goal, Justice and Mercy, representing the spirit of Freedom, with Fanny playing her wreath upon a bust of Lincoln. Beautiful scenes will be seen in several classic dramas. The other acts, Crawford and Broderick, have a clever comedy entitled Little of This and a Little of That. The Triangle feature is Dorothy Fish in Her Official Features, a five-part story of a roguish, independent miss, who outwits their designs on her fortune by promoting her own. Presidents on her 18th birthday. To complete the show there is a funny Triangle comedy entitled A Berch Scandal. Matinee at 2:30 and 2:15, 10 and 12c; evening at 8 and 10c, 15c, 20c, 25c and 50c. Come early and be sure of a seat. At the Auditorium. Today is the last day for the William Fox magnificent production of A Daughter of the Gods with Annette Kellerman at the Auditorium theatre. This beautiful picture is interesting not only to the grownups but to children as well. The gnomes, fairies, elves and the witches have a great fascination for the children, especially the beautiful scenes in the fairy village of the gnomes. The water scenes have never been equalled. It is in these scenes that Miss Kellerman is at her best as the super-swimmer, especially in the scene where, bound hand and foot, she battles with the giant waves which again and again beat her back against the rocks as she struggles to free herself from the ropes which bind her. Miss Kellerman's first appearance in the picture is strikingly effective as she appears standing inside of a huge sea shell. A Daughter of the Gods She is, Divinely Tall and Most Divinely Fair, reads the title on the screen, and her stately figure is most certainly divine in its perfect proportions. As the advance sale of seats is large patrons should purchase their tickets well in advance so as to avoid standing in the long line of ticket buyers in front of the box office before every performance.
